This classic Volkswagen is just a body and floor pan. It's a bare shell but the car has a good roof, dash and perhaps a few other goodies for the right person. It is rusty. And the car has been parted out since the photos for my '62 convertible restoration project, so it is just the bare body left...

Must be out in the next few days otherwise it will have to go to the scrap yard.

Thanks for looOoooOooking!
